

Beauty of Sri Lanka

5 NIGHTS / 6 DAYS

THE TRIP

The same sweep of the island as our seven-day tour, compressed into six. A rock fortress at dawn, the high tea country, the Ella railway, a Yala safari and the southern beaches — moving at pace, with a long final run up the coast to the airport.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Sigiriya Rock Fortress climbed at first light
- Tea estates and factories above Ramboda
- The Nanu Oya to Ella railway
- Yala safari and the southern surf coast

DAY BY DAY

DAY 1 Airport to Sigiriya

Met on arrival and driven inland, roughly four hours to Sigiriya. The rest of the day is at leisure — most people need it after the flight. Overnight Sigiriya, in sight of the rock.

DAY 2 The rock, then the climb into the hills

At the gate when it opens: 1,200 steps past the mirror wall and the fifth-century frescoes to a palace on the summit of a 200-metre granite plug. Down by mid-morning, then south through Kandy and up through Ramboda into the tea. Overnight Nuwara Eliya.

DAY 3 The train to Ella

Board at Nanu Oya for the four-hour run through the tea terraces to Ella, doors open the whole way. Afternoon at Nine Arches Bridge. Overnight Ella.

DAY 4 Ella Gap to Yala

Little Adam's Peak at dawn if you have the legs, then the descent to the dry southeast. Afternoon jeep safari in Yala National Park. Overnight near the park.

DAY 5 Down to the coast

West along the coast with a stop at Hiriketiya bay, then on to Mirissa. The afternoon and evening are free on the beach. Overnight Mirissa.

DAY 6 The long coast road home

A full day of coast: the stilt fishermen at Ahangama, Galle Fort, then the expressway north with a short stop in Colombo and a last look at Negombo before your airport transfer. Roughly 250 km with four stops – an early start is essential.
